

Keeber 2

NahamCon CTF 2022

The Problem:

The Keeber Security Group is a new startup in its infant stages. The team is always changing and some people have left the company. The Keeber Security Group has been quick with changing their website to reflect these changes, but there must be some way to find ex-employees. Find an ex-employee through the group's website. The flag is in regular format.

The Solve:

That was a simple time-machine task. Some research and found:
